FIM Administration: Ad interim collegial body appointed

Following the departure of FIM CEO Stéphane Desprez, a collegial body composed of Ignacio Verneda, Executive Director Sport, Steve Aeschlimann, Executive Director, Operations and Françoise Emery, Strategic and Planning Officer, was appointed by the FIM Executive Board.

This collegial body will ensure the overall management of the FIM Administration ad interim. It will work under the supervision of and report regularly to the FIM Executive Board.

About the FIM (www.fim-live.com)

The FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme) founded in 1904, is the governing body for motorcycle sport and the global advocate for motorcycling. The FIM is an independent association formed by 108 National Federations throughout the world. It is recognised as the sole competent authority in motorcycle sport by the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Among its 50 FIM World Championships the main events are MotoGP, Superbike, Endurance, Motocross, Supercross, Trial, Enduro, Cross-Country Rallies and Speedway. Furthermore, the FIM is also active and involved in the following areas: public affairs, road safety, touring and protection of the environment. The FIM was the first international sports federation to impose an Environmental Code in 1994.
