Additional Supplementary Regulations - Super Prix Competition

Qualification

The winner of the Final (Heat 23) at each Super Prix meeting will qualify directly for the Super Prix Final, to be held at the conclusion of the final SGP meeting of the season on the following basis:

- From the first Super Prix meeting the winner will qualify to ride in Red and from gate 1 in the Super Prix Final.
- From the second Super Prix meeting the winner, if not already qualified, will be nominated to ride in Blue and from gate 2 in the Super Prix Final.
- From the third Super Prix meeting the winner, if not already qualified, will be nominated to ride in White and from gate 3 in the Super Prix Final.
- From the fourth Super Prix meeting the winner, if not already qualified, will be nominated to ride in Yellow and from gate 4 in the Super Prix Final.

Any vacant place in the Super Prix Final will be filled on the following basis and in this order:

In the event that a Super Prix is won by a rider already qualified for the Super Prix Final, then his place and start position will be awarded to the rider, otherwise unqualified, with the highest position in the Final Overall Grand Prix Classification at the end of the season.

Should a qualified rider be unable to participate in the Super Prix Final as a result of injury or for any other reason, he will be replaced by the rider, otherwise unqualified, with the highest position in the Final Overall Grand Prix Classification at the end of the season.

A Wild Card, Qualified Substitute or Track Reserve rider may qualify for the Super Prix Final

Super Prix Final in Bydgoszcz in October

The Super Prix Final will be held at the conclusion of the final Speedway Grand Prix Event of the season when the Final Overall Grand Prix Classification is complete and after any necessary run offs have been held.
