

FIM ROAD SAFETY TROPHY

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme (FIM) is pleased to call for nominations for its Annual Road Safety Trophy. In 2022, the eleventh edition of this Trophy will take place, which was instituted as part of the FIM's contribution to the United Nations Decade of Action for Road Safety. Naturally the Trophy is focused on improving road safety for riders of powered two wheelers – motorcycles, scooters and mopeds.

ELIGIBILITY

The FIM Road Safety Trophy may be awarded to an individual, a club, a national federation, a governmental organisation, a non-governmental organisation, or a commercial entity.

The history of this Trophy illustrates its scope well:

2010: Greig Craft and the AIP Foundation for low cost motorcycle safety helmets in middle- and low-income countries.

2011: Andrés Perez Rubio, former motorcycle racing champion, for his work for road safety, in particular safety barrier on the open roads.

2012: Ian Burrell MBE and the Ambulance Motorcycle Club of the UK for the CRASH Card (helmet medical card - now more than a million distributed worldwide).

2013: The United Kingdom Department for Transport for the SHARP star rating system of independent testing of helmets – modelled on the star rating system for cars.

2014: The KNMV (Royal Dutch Motorcycle Federation) for their work in developing scientifically proven risk awareness training for road riders.

2015: Mr Tony Rich, patrol officer in the AA, for his concept for a cycle and motorcycle "awareness" programme directed at drivers. This has become an international campaign promoted by FIA Region One.

2016: Federazione Motociclista Italiana (FMI) for its Road Safety Training programme.

2017: The Norwegian Motorcycle Union NMCU for their work on the rider training manual Full Kontroll.

2018: Michael Woodford MBE and the Safer Roads Foundation for their work in promoting, "automatic headlights on" technology to be fitted to all motorcycles sold across the world - not just those marketed in Europe and North America. Also, for their advocacy to the motorcycle industry to fit all motorcycles with an anti-lock braking system.

2019: MotoCAP for its website testing and reviewing the comfort and effectiveness of motorcycle clothing on sale in Australia.

2020: no programme launched due the Covid-19 pandemic.

2021: no candidatures received due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

JURY

The Trophy panel has previously included independent judges:

Mr Antonio Avenoso

Executive Director, European Transport Safety Council

Dr Luciana Iorio

Chair, Road Safety Forum (WP1) of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe

Dr Rohit Baluja

President, Indian Institute of Road Traffic Education

In addition, two judges from the FIM are ex officio members of the panel:

- The chair of the FIM Awards and Recognition Committee
- The Director of the FIM Mobility Commission

TROPHY PRESENTATION

This takes place at the annual FIM Awards Prize Giving Ceremony.

NOMINATIONS

Nomination proposals may be submitted by an individual, or by an individual acting on behalf of an organisation (for example a FIM FMN). To present a nomination to the FIM for the Road Safety Trophy, you must:

- Send all documentation in English only
- Describe the individual or organisation you wish to present
- Briefly explain how their work contributes to improving road safety for riders
- Include your contact details in case the judges or the FIM Administration have any further inquiries to make concerning the nomination.

In order to send their candidatures, candidates must use the dedicated online application form by clicking HERE

If you wish, you can also include details of any referees who are willing to give their support to your nomination in your application. You can also send supporting documentation via email at: recognition@fim.ch (e.g. academic reports, or press and media coverage, other awards or prizes received etc.).

DEADLINE

Please submit your nomination as early as possible, but no later than 31 August 2022.

The FIM reserves its right not to award the prize, should no candidature be in accordance with the present provisions.

We encourage our CONUs, FMNs and Commission Directors and Members to share with us potential candidates for the FIM Road Safety Trophy.

Contact us at: recognition@fim.ch